Dinnerstein/Haimovitz
Beethoven/Glass

As the world approaches the 250th anniversary of Beethoven's birth (2020), two extraordinary artists pair this giant with one of contemporary music's most influential composers- Philip Glass. Pianist Simone Dinnerstein and cellist Matt Haimovitz collaborate on a dynamic program that includes a Beethoven Cello Sonata alongside a Glass Partita, and solo piano and cello repertoire by both composers. Limited dates are available in the 19-20 season.
