

DAVID KRAKAUER BIOGRAPHY

Born and raised in New York City, David Krakauer's early exposure to diverse cultural influences provided a powerful topline for his music. Krakauer earned his reputation as a Klezmer specialist, then showcased his formidable talents in other musical arenas, such as classical, electronica and jazz. A GRAMMY®-nominated virtuoso, he has shared stages as a soloist with a wide array of artists, string quartets and symphony orchestras - among them, the Klezmatics, Fred Wesley, Itzhak Perlman, Socalled, Leonard Slatkin, the Kronos Quartet, the Tokyo Quartet, the Emerson Quartet, the Orchestre de Lyon, the Phoenix Symphony, the Brooklyn Philharmonic, the Dresdener Philharmonie, the Detroit Symphony and film composer Danny Elfman.

{721 Hyde Park ■ Doylestown, PA 18902 ■ p.267-880-3750 ■ f.267-880-3757 ■ www.baylinartists.com}